You understand that the rabbit is to be rehomed as a pet and is to be a companion and not used for breeding purposes. Animal Care retains ownership of the rabbit and reserves the right to reclaim it if it is suspected that it is not being fed, housed or cared for to the satisfaction of Animal Care. Should the rabbit ever leave your care it must be returned to Animal Care by prior arrangement or a new home must be vetted by Animal Care. You understand that you retain the full liability for any vet fees incurred at any time from the time of adoption unless the rabbit is on Animal Care foster scheme. You understand that although we tell you everything we know about about the rabbit we are rehoming, we do not always have a complete history, there for we cannot guarantee health/behavior 100% Animal Care will provide ongoing support to all adopters of our animals. It may take 6 months or more for the rabbit to settle in to its new home. . I understand that Animal Care can not refund any money after the adoption unless a decision is made by a Manager or a committee member
